Re: Public Service Superannuation (PSSP) Contribution and Salary Limits

2017 Salary Limit from which PSSP contributions can be deducted is $165,077.22

It is your responsibility as a participating employer of the Public Service Superannuation Plan (PSSP) to monitor payroll deductions and cease submitting pension contributions to the PSSP when a member has reached the maximum salary limit from which PSSP contributions can be deducted.

For your information:

2016 Salary limit from which contributions can be deducted is $163,715.00

2015 Salary limit from which contributions can be deducted is $159,704.50

2014 Salary limit from which contributions can be deducted is $156,875.00

2013 Salary limit from which contributions can be deducted is $152,718.50

2012 Salary limit from which contributions can be deducted is $149,868.50

Visit our website at www.peba.gov.sk.ca and check out the 2016 Pension Adjustment Guide and Tables.

If you have any questions, please contact the PSSP at 306-787-5442.

Thanks.
